

PRIZES:

Prizes will be awarded to the design or architecture firm designated by an independent panel of judges. Each category will have a winner and an honorable mention with one being selected as the Grand Prize winner. All category winners will receive a cash prize, Vision Awards trophy and national recognition in the Vision Awards spread in the April 2019 issue of Floor Focus Magazine. In addition two members from the design team of the winning project in each category will be treated to a celebration weekend (location and date to be announced), including airfare and hotel.

CATEGORIES:

- Corporate
- Healthcare
- Education
- Hospitality
- Retail

DETAILS:

All interior design projects entered must have been completed after January 1, 2017 and cannot have been previously submitted to the Vision Awards contest. The contest is only open to designers and/or architects and must be North American projects.

Entries will be judged based on the creative use of flooring and how the flooring integrates with the overall space design. Winners will be featured in the April 2019 issue of Floor Focus magazine and on the FloorDaily website.

Entrants may be a team or an individual. All entries must be original work. Each entry must be submitted with an entry form, entry fee ($50, check made payable to Floor Focus, Mastercard or Visa) and high resolution digital photographs of the project. A minimum of 5 high resolution photos, maximum of 15, is required. Photos should be submitted along with entry form and entry fee either on, flash drive, or email to info@floorfocus.com. Please do not send prints; only digital images will be accepted. Professional photography is not required but is strongly recommended. Photos must be 300 dpi and no smaller than 5"x7". Photos should show the overall project and the integration of the flooring within the project.

Multiple projects may be submitted providing each entry comes with its own entry form, entry fee and photography. Entries must be received by March 1, 2019. Once submitted, Floor Focus has all rights to publish photos and project information in Floor Focus magazine and on the FloorDaily website. Please specify if photo credits are necessary. No entries will be returned.

SPONSORED BY FLOOR FOCUS AND:

